

THE DAILY EMPIRE.

Gleanings of all Kind.

The Chicago Times says the present year has witnessed the erection of more buildings in that city than in any other year since Chicago grew from a village. The cost of building for the year 1865 will reach a figure not far short of seven millions.

JOHN BROWN'S SOUL IS MARCHING ON.—The soul of the great horse-thief seems to have taken possession of a great many rascals in Indiana, judging from the number of cases of horse-stealing recorded by the local press of the State. Hardly a night passes that some farmer does not lose a horse.

A new mineral spring has been discovered on the field of the first battle of Gettysburg. The water is said to resemble that of Vieley, in France.

A new use for Confederate money has been found. A lady in Texas stuffed a mattress with $500,000 worth of it.

A woman describing her runaway husband, says: "Daniel may be known by a scar on his nose—where I scratched him."

The Rocky Mountain News tells of an enthusiastic young Missourian who eulogized the beauty of his "gal," said, "I'll be doggoned if she ain't as pretty as a red wagon."

Some of our religious exchanges tell a story about a woman being relieved from speechless grief by a hymn. We have known a number of the sex to be strongly affected and greatly benefited by him before this.

The history of Mexico shows that during the last forty years Mexico has had thirty-seven different forms of government, thirty-two of which were "republics," and seventy-five Presidents. Its revolutions, during that time have amounted to over two hundred.

The Boston Post says: The Southern women discard the homespun, upon which there has been so much boasting, and take to Northern fashion and Northern goods with wondrous facility, and their temper sweetens in proportion as their wardrobe is replenished.

The Portsmouth Chronicle very generously offers to publish, free of charge, ordinary notices of all highwaymen and garrisons killed while plying their vocation.

A female pickpocket was arrested at the cathedral, in Newark, New Jersey, on Sunday last. When arrested she dropped eight pocket books, each containing a considerable amount of money.

A meeting has been held in Paris to provide the emancipated American negroes with trousers at five francs a pair. One thousand francs were raised—that is, two hundred trousers, which will go a long way by being sent to America. Ladies are especially invited to subscribe for this truly philanthropic purpose.

Ohio is the only State that came out of the war with a reduction of its State debt. Its debt is now $18,500,751; in 1860 it was $14,250,233.

Thus far but about five thousand cattle have been slaughtered in Chicago for barbecuing purposes. At this time last year six thousand head had been packed.

Hall's Journal of Health expresses the opinion that buckwheat cakes contain more nourishment for less money than any other popular article of food.

Josh Billings, says that "if a man professes to serve the Lord, he likes to see him do it when he measures onions as well as when he hollers glory halleluyers."

Ex-President Pierce was baptised and confirmed in the Episcopal Church at Concord, N. H., on Sunday last.

D. S. Warren, mail carrier from Iowa City to Washington, was frozen to death a few nights since on his way to the latter place. Mr. Warren was seventy-eight years of age, and his horse being fast in a mud-hole and the night being dark from a snow-storm, the old man and his horse both perished.

James Gordon Bennett's American (Barnum's) Museum property bids fair to pay handsomely. Knox, the tanner, has paid $22,000 for five years' possession of his old property, and the saloon under the old Museum pays $7,500.

In Marietta, the eldest settlement in Ohio, the bell in use on the Court House is the one presented by that unfortunate Queen, Marie Antoinette, of France, after whom the town was named. This bell is held in great esteem by the citizens.
